BAIL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2024

A BILL FOR AN ACT TO AMEND THE BAIL ACT

Enacted by the Parliament of The Bahamas

1. Short title and commencement.

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Bail (Amendment) Act, 2024.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on such date as the Minister may specify by Notice published in the Gazette.

2. Insertion of new section 9A into the principal Act.

The principal Act is amended by the insertion immediately after section 9 of the following new section 9A—“9A. Conditions of recognisance of bail.

- (1) Where a person is granted bail in accordance with this Act, he shall be required to enter into a recognisance of bail which shall contain the conditions to which the grant of bail is subject.
- (2) The recognisance of bail shall be in the form in the Third Schedule.
- (3) The breach of any of the conditions contained in the recognisance of bail shall result in the revocation of bail.
- (4) Every recognisance of bail shall specify the profession or calling of the person entering into or acknowledging the same together with his Christian name and surname and the name of his place of residence, and, when duly acknowledged, shall be subscribed by the accused person, his sureties (if any), the judge, magistrate or other authorised person before whom it is acknowledged.

- (5) The recognisance of bail shall be conditioned —
 - (a) that the accused person duly appear at the time and place of trial or of an adjourned hearing and not depart the court without leave;
 - (b) that the accused person not interfere with witnesses;
 - (c) that the accused person not commit any offence while on bail;
- (6) The recognisance of bail may be conditioned —
 - (a) that the accused person reports to a police station or other designated place at the times specified therein;
 - (b) that the accused person is monitored by an electronic device;
 - (c) that the accused person surrenders his passport or other travel documents;
 - (d) that the accused person keeps the peace and be of good behaviour; or
 - (e) that the accused person be subject to such other conditions as prescribed by any Practice Direction issued by the Chief Justice.”.

3. Amendment of section 12 of the principal Act.

Section 12 is amended by the deletion of subsections (4), (5) and (6) and the substitution of the following—

- “(4) A person arrested pursuant to subsection (3) shall be brought as soon as practicable before a Magistrate, and in any event within forty-eight hours after his arrest.
- (5) A person arrested pursuant to paragraph (d) of subsection (3) and brought before a Magistrate may be remanded in custody or committed to custody, or, alternatively, granted bail subject to the same or different conditions of bail.”.

4. Repeal and replace section 12A of the principal Act.

Section 12A of the principal Act is repealed and replaced as follows—

“12A. Offence of violating conditions of bail.

Any person released on bail in criminal proceedings who breaches any conditions of bail, commits an offence.”.

5. Amendment of section 12B of the principal Act.

Section 12B of the principal Act is amended by the deletion of subsection (1) and substitution of the following—

“(1) An offence under section 12A is punishable on summary conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding five years.”.

6. Insertion of Third Schedule into the principal Act.

The principal Act is amended by the insertion immediately after the Second Schedule of the Third Schedule as follows—
